TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St.
Louis, "the future great City of the world."
This line, the

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAIL-WAY.

has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourself and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. BAR-RETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoff, Suffrage.

The State Agricultural Journal is a paper for which we have much respect. It is the official organ of a respectable portion of the best men in our community, and its object, which it pursues with zeal, is the benefit of the farmers. In the latest issue of the Journal, we notice some advice to the colored people, all couched within ten or twelve lines, which are very important. Most of the advice is excellent, and that which is good applies with perhaps double force to the whites.

But we cannot concur in the advice to the colored people not to vote so often. Is it meaning that the time employed in voting is wasted? We do not think that the time is misspent which is used in considering attentively the merits of candidates for official station, and going to the polls and voting for them. In a free government it is one of the strongest evidences of a decay of public spirit, to see its citizens cease to take an interest in elections. The road is open for that corruption which leads to despotism when free citizens lose their jealous regard for their suffrage. The right of suffrage is one for which struggling millions in Europe are carrying on an aggressive warfare against class privilege, feudal imposition, and priestly domination. The enfranchisement of man, a right so inestimably prized, so hateful to tyrants, should never be lightly regarded or recklessly used.

But perhaps the Journal means that the colored people can safely entrust their interests at the ballot box to the whites who will take care that the rights of the negroes are maintained. Perhaps the Journal is right, but we do not so see it. This argument would lead to a despotism, or at least to an oligarchy. Experience has demonstrated that wherever a class is without self-protection by the ballot, its rights have ever been disregarded. The decay of the power of the House of Lords in England and the extension of the franchise have marked a recognition of the humanity of the lower classes. The gift of the ballot to the freedmen of the South, was the crowning act of emancipation, and averted from them a species of serfage which the disfranchised and landless peasantry of Europe endure with complaint and protest.

Suffrage is a right which no man ought to neglect to exercise. It was no poetical hyperbole which compared the falling of the ballot to the blow of the thunderbolt. By its strength, a restraint more potent than armies can give is established over corruption. The hand of the tyrant is paralyzed by its touch, and it is the lever by which oppression is lifted from a people. The visions which have warmed the hopes of philanthropists in all ages, the efforts for the advancement of mankind in all countries, and the establishment of human liberty anywhere, have always been accompanied by the ballot to those who are really free.

Poor Van Gohlzen, field marshal of Austria, perishing by his own hand, in his sixty-ninth year, left the following note, directing that it be read at his funeral: "I have prayed and I am composed, but I cannot longer live. The elevated functions with which I was clothed were especially agreeable to me because of the good that I could do on every side. It was toward this goal that all my efforts tended, and now it is my consolation. For a long time I have suffered from a nervous irritation, which for months has rendered me unable to sleep. The measure is full."

A Paris correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette tells this singular story of the supervision of the French press: "In the days of the Empire a fiery editor of the South was summoned before the correctional police, and was fined for an article written by a person whose name he refused to reveal till the court had pronounced its sentence. The verdict delivered, the editor betrayed the name of the guilty party. It was that of the Emperor."

In voting by ballot in England you have to make a cross against the name of the candidate or candidates for whom you vote. A severely Protestant voter objected to make the said sign as a record of Popery, and put a neat round O against the name of his chosen candidate. Of course the vote wouldn't count in such a case, but what did that matter as long as he eased his tender conscience?

No man can be successful who neglects his business.

EDITORIAL SUGGEST.

— Three of the nine present judges of the Supreme Court are natives of Connecticut, viz: Chief Justice Waite, of Lyme; Judge Strong, of Somers; Judge Field, of Haddam.

— We rejoice to hear that several London ladies have organized an Evangelical Reform Association, and are going to hold prayer meetings in behalf of Algernon Charles Swinburne.

— A Herald dispatch, dated Mexico, 1st instant, says there is no combination in existence against President Lerdo. — Four of the kidnappers of Senor Salazar have been shot. Gen. Santa Anna has arrived at the capital. Bishop Simpson leaves for the United States next week.

Intelligence has reached the Department of the State that on the 16th inst. an act of the Canadian Parliament will come into operation prohibiting the transportation of goods or passengers by water from one port in Canada to another, except in British ships, and imposing heavy penalties if any goods or passengers are carried contrary to the provisions of the act.

— The correspondent of the Daily News at St. Petersburg writes, under date of the 28th ultimo, that serious rioting has occurred in Eastern Poland in consequence of the closing of the churches by order of the government. At one place the disorder was so great that the military was called out, and fired on the rioters, killing and wounding seventy persons.

— Dispatches have at last arrived at London from the gold coast, fully confirming the previous reports of victory and dispelling the fears which were entertained for the safety of the expedition. The Ashantee King finally surrendered himself into the hands of the British troops, and was a prisoner at Gen. Walseley's headquarters.

— Dispatches from Calcutta report that the distress among the famine-stricken people in eastern Tiberhot is increasing. In one village alone eight persons have starved to death within the past four days. The number of applicants for employment on the Government relief works has increased from fifteen to thirty thousand within a week.

— The steamer from Rio Janeiro February 8th, has arrived at Lisbon. — The probability of a war with the Argentine States, on account of the insurrection in Paraguay, was increasing, and there was a general decline of values in consequence. Troops and vessels were going forward to Paraguay. At Buenos Ayres elections were in progress, and were attended with intense excitement. Troops were being dispatched to various points on the frontier, and a war with Brazil was looked upon as liable to break out at any moment. Munitions were arriving from the United States. The cholera continues to rage, and the deaths average seven daily.

— A special dispatch to the Times, from Bayona, contains the following intelligence, obtained from Carlist sources: Don Carlos has announced that it is not his intention to impose a constitution upon the population of Bilbao when the place is taken. On his entrance into the city he will proceed to the cathedral and be crowned King of Spain. He will swear to support the people, and will constitute a government with Gen. Elie as President of the Council. An appeal will be made to foreign powers to recognize the legitimacy of the Carlists. He will declare Spaniards exempt from allegiance to any other government than his own. He will draw $5,000,000 as a first installment on a loan previously contracted.

— It takes a bold man to leap even for life from a train of cars going thirty miles an hour, but it was done and apparently with no great personal injury on Monday on the Harlem road. A New York Sheriff with two prisoners, Charles Tallman and Horace Leveredge, handcuffed together, started to take his charge from White Plains to Albany to prison. While the train was going very rapidly the two men suddenly rose and started for the door. Leveredge got outside and jumped. Tallman was caught in the car. The train was stopped and the neighborhood aroused, and in about an hour the Sheriff's hundred dollars reward offered was earned by some worthy residents. The man, it seems, had at White Plains depot quietly pulled a hairpin from a lady's head who sat near him, and had picked the handcuff locks with that. When captured he was somewhat bused by his fall, and very wet from swimming a creek that he had plunged into, but he was alive and active, which would probably have been the case with no innocent man on the train who might have undertaken to brave so many dangers.

Every desire is a viper in the bosom, which, while he is still, is harmless, but which kindled may sting.

EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN
EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at

Five Dollars per Annum.

The Post is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the

LATEST NEWS,
up to the time of going to press.

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL
AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE, its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the Post is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however, an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the Post, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastically ally in THE Post.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

WHICH IS THE BEST?

Which is the best Sewing Machine, is a point on which different Companies differ, each, of course, thinks its own the best, but if the point were to be decided by popularity the Howe Machine would surpass all others. It is a noticeable fact that the Howe Company has of their Machines in use although having existed but six years, while the Company which claims to have most in use, has only about twice that number, though having existed for twenty years.

Until the year 1866, ELIAS HOWE, JR., the

SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND

ORIGINAL INVENTOR OF SEW-ING MACHINES,

did not manufacture, but was content with receiving the royalty which all Sewing Machine Manufacturers had to pay him for the use of his Patents. A sample of each Machine was sent to Mr.
Howe before a license could be obtained.

Constant study upon them enabled him to avoid the defects of each and improve upon the excellences of all. This fact explains the

WONDERFUL DEGREE OF PERFECTION

to which Mr. Howe brought his latest pattern of Machine, without which advantages such a result could not have been achieved. These facts should be borne in mind by all who intend to purchase a Sewing Machine. As the purchase of a Machine may be the act of a lifetime with some, care should be taken to

PURCHASE ONLY THE LATEST AND BEST.

W. D. Goodrich,

On Market Street Near Third,

WILMINGTON, N. C.,

offers the Howe Machine on such easy terms that no one need longer have an excuse for doing without a Sewing Machine.

No pains or expense spared to give thorough satisfaction to every customer.

ness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticism, Tales, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

A NEW SERIES
Was begun Jan. 1, 1873, with entirely new

Turgeneff, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Oh-department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only com-erally inaccessible but indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of THE AMERICAN LIVING WRITERS in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics,—is sufficiently indicated by the following

OPINIONS.

"Reproduces the best thoughts of the
